A Prayer of Thanksgiving and Intercession

Our Father and our God, thank You for a good night's rest and the anticipation of the new day. Thank You Lord for long life and good health, for protecting us from the evil one, for providing all our needs every day, and for guiding us each day into the way you have set for us.

Thank You for food for our bodies, but most of all our Father, thank You for Your great love expressed through the blood of Jesus on the cross. Thank You for redeeming us from all our sins, for washing us whiter than snow, for making us holy in Your sight, for allowing us to come into Your presence to intercede on behalf of others who are hurting and for ourselves as Your children.

Thank You Lord for comfort and confidence through Your word that allows us to trust You, to lean on You and to live each day resting in our faith in Your promises.

We don't understand the depth of Your great love but we do understand that Your love redeemed us, that Your love desires that we spend eternity in Your presence, where righteousness dwells. Thank You Lord.

Lord, You've given us a glimpse of Your eternity when the apostle Paul tells the Corinthians that our minds can't grasp the beauty, the joy, the comfort in the place you have prepared for all who love You. Thank You Lord.

Our Father, as we wait for Your coming for us, we pray for our family. You know us, each of us, our strengths and weaknesses, our needs and wants and our breaking point. Thank You our Father for Your promise that no temptation would be more than we could handle. Lord strengthen our faith, give us the desire and courage to cling to You, to resist our enemy and to keep our eyes and mind and desire on You, Holy God.

Lord, we've asked You to bring the political leadership in our nation to their senses, to cause them to realize that You are Sovereign God, Creator God, so that they would lead the mind and heart of this nation back to You. Father, You have allowed the virus plague to bring the whole world to its knees. As in the Biblical record, some have turned to You for answers. We rejoice in that news and pray that more people will turn to You.

Lord, we intercede for Your people, for every soul who has named the name of Jesus, who has been buried with Him in baptism and have been raised into the new life of faith, Lord, we ask for Your mercies and Your grace to cover each of Your children, to comfort all of us through this time of fear and uncertainty.

Lord as we bow before You, reflecting on Your word, on descriptions of Your majesty, of You as Creator, we remember the model prayer You gave us. Thank You Lord for helping us to understand that Your name is above every name, that every knee will bow before You and every tongue will confess that Jesus Christ is Lord of all the earth.

Thank You Lord for reminding us that the coming of Your kingdom in its completeness should be our first priority, our first interest, our first desire as we wait for You. Father, keep us looking for the time when Your Will, will be done on earth as it is done in heaven, where righteousness dwells. Lord, we ask that Your Holy Spirit nudge our hearts to think of Your promises. May our faith become a faith of joy and longing for Your return.

Our Father, may Your Will be done in our lives each day. May the need to share the gospel of Jesus with a lost world become our first priority. Help us Lord. Give us courage when we are weak. As You did for Gideon, we pray that You do for us also. As Gideon responded Lord, may we also respond, bringing honor to Your name.

Our Father, may Your people regain their identity as the people of the Book. May we live so that our friends and neighbors see Jesus in us, in our dress, in our action, in our speech. May our lives honor Your name and bring glory to You, our Lord and our Savior. In His name we pray.

Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.

Africa Letters

I am eternally grateful that I have you in my life.
Your teaching put me in the state of mind to live in readiness, as if I have only an hour, a minute, a second left here for me.

I realized that I have only a short time here and that I need to set my house in order because the Son of man will be coming soon.

Thank you for your broadcast "Words of Life"

I have started reading my Bible and these questions that are³ confusing to me and I write to seek your help. Was it lawful in the eyes of God that Sarah should give her maid as a wife to her husband? Can these things be practiced today in this generation?

Am so grateful to God for you and your ministry.

I don’t know how to thank you for your wonderful program “Words of Life” on Radio Africa which I have been listening all these years to help me grow spiritually in Christ.

God Bless you all.

Stella Agkeman, GIS. P. O. Box GP2856, Accra, Ghana, April 16, 2020

This radio station is doing well for us. I verified your broadcast for some years now and I have learned the way to salvation and how as a individual you need salvation in your life.

Sir, we are living in the world where people no longer follow the teaching of Christ.

Please continue to help us learn the truth about Jesus Christ through your program.
