Christians Witnessing under Civil Government

“This is the day which the Lord has made; Let us rejoice and be glad in it,” (Psalm 118:24).

“So when He had washed their feet, and taken His garments and reclined at the table again, He said to them, 'Do you know what I have done to you? You call Me Teacher and Lord; and you are right, for so I am. If I then, the Lord and the Teacher, washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet,' (John 13:12-14).

“Then he showed me a river of the water of life, clear as crystal, coming from the throne of God and of the Lamb, ... There will no longer be any curse; and the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and His bond-servants will serve Him; they will see His face and His name will be on their foreheads. And there will no longer be any night; and they will not have need of the light of a lamp nor the light of the sun, because the Lord God will illumine them; and they will reign forever and ever. And he said to me, 'These things are faithful and true'; and the Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, sent His angel to show to His bond-servants the things which must soon take place,” (Revelation 22:1-6).

Many Scriptures emphasize the attitude of Jesus. These offer the setting for my thoughts.

Every day is a day for fellowship with our Lord and Teacher; a day to rejoice in the beautiful and precious salvation provided for us through His blood, a day to anticipate eternity in His presence, a day to share His offer of salvation.

Except for a few free spirits, America was founded on Christian principles. The evidence is obvious. Within a few years America began to relax its grip on Biblical teachings. Within our lifetime our political leaders have increasingly turned away from the teachings of Jesus. All other options are from the mind of Satan. This is where we live. It seems possible that Christians in America will suffer for their faith. Think of Satan's record against Christians as presented by Job, (1:1-2:10). Because God allowed Satan to rule.

We don't understand the mind of God so as to advise Him on operating His universe. His omniscience already has the plan, from the beginning to end. What He desires of us is that we choose to walk with Him and to trust Him in all things. In this life we walk by faith in the Lordship of Jesus the Christ. The only constant in life is the message of the Bible; man has sinned against Creator God and redemption comes only through the blood of Jesus in obedience to His commands, (John 14:1-6).

Peter identifies Christians and describes our mission, “But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for God's own possession, so that you may proclaim the excellencies of Him who has called you out of darkness into His marvelous light; for you once were not a people, but now you are the people of God; you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy,” (I Peter 2:9-10).

Our mission from Jesus is to enjoy the day and to imitate Him; to show His attitude of compassion and love for lost souls, to choose to put others before ourselves, to spend and be spent for the cause of Christ, which is saving souls from eternal hell. Think about it. Jesus came to do the will of His Father. That is what He wants us to do. Nothing else will last.

God has not changed. He is compassionate and tolerant and holy. He gave us free will to choose to accept His Lordship and eternity in His presence or refuse Him and follow Satan all the way into his eternity

God has not changed. He is compassionate and tolerant and holy. He gave us free will to choose to accept His Lordship and eternity in His presence or refuse Him and follow Satan all the way into his eternity.

Our loving God does not send any person to eternal hell, He accepts our personal choice, for him or against Him, (Revelation 22:10-21).

Are you rejoicing in His salvation; excited about His eternity; longing for His appearing? Then let the world know that you belong to Jesus, that you rest in His saving grace and that you invite them to accept and enjoy the Lordship and salvation of Jesus.

Amen. Come Lord Jesus

Buford Smith

After listening to your program for years now on the air, on August 8, 2020 I surrendered my life to Jesus and was saved by His Grace. I now know that there is a place for me in Heaven.

My father misguided me in life, taught me how to smuggle drugs and other illegal products into to the country and sell them. He made a lot of money fast. One day I was arrested by LNP and was sentenced to 8 years in prison. Our only source of listening to your program was through your blue radio. Pastor, I really want to be free from prison.

Israel Dah, Oct. 7, 2020, Monrovia, Liberia
